

James Seery

Delay Expert and President

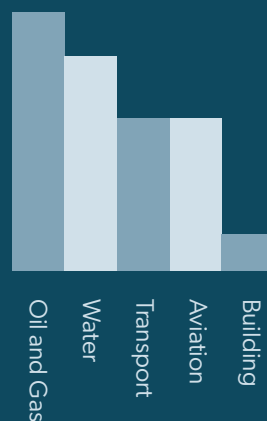

James is a delay expert and a chartered engineer with experience in major project delivery across multiple sectors. He combines his field experience with a diligent, fact-based approach to delay analysis, and is well versed in all methods of analysis. He has a strong technical background in design and build projects and has completed a masters in construction law and dispute resolution, which allows him to bring an innovative approach to commercial and claims strategy.

Experience Overview

Core Area of Expertise

- Delay Expert
- Project Scheduling and Review
- Disruption and Productivity
- Construction Claims
- Complex Technical Disputes

Sector Experience

Education and Qualifications

- CEng, Chartered Engineer
- MBA, Master of Business Administration
- BEng, Mechanical Engineering
- LLM, Construction Law and Dispute Resolution